

WELCOME TO WEST ORANGE, NEW JERSEY

The Township of West Orange is a flourishing suburban sanctuary that is the envy of Essex County. With a dynamic, global population of almost 50,000 residents, West Orange is known for its rich history as well as its cosmopolitan appeal. Former home to legendary inventor Thomas Edison's laboratories, West Orange is the home to 'Edison Lofts,' featuring luxury, full-service residential apartments with breathtaking views of the Manhattan skyline and 18,000 sq. feet of retail space. Close-knit neighborhoods offer a diverse selection of housing options. From million-dollar mansions, colonials, split-levels and capes, to condominium complexes, townhouses and newly-constructed neighborhood enclaves, West Orange presents assorted housing stock for all types of budgets.
